SAYS MURPHY

Tammany Hall Leader Declares that Low's Vote in Brooklyn Vill Be About Seventy-five Thousand.

NO TAMMANY HALL WANTED IN BROOKLYN.

Ex-Bridge Commissioner Shea Says the People of that Borough Will Not Stand for the Wigwam's Methods.

Leader Charles F. Murphy braved the Coluge of rain and arrived at Tammany Hall this afternoon. He appeared in betor humor and spirits than lately and when surrounded by newspaper men did ot hesitate to express his satisfaction. "Last night's convention," he said, was an old-time Democratic convention; an onen convention, full of enusiasm, where every one had his say The candidates named ought to satisfy every Democrat. Grumblers can't punch any holes in the ticket that has been

"Now that the conventions are ove we'll get down to business. "The election is over for that matter." he concluded with a laugh.

Some of the Fusion leaders claiming that Mr. Low will carry Brooklyn by at least 50,000, do you agree with them?" was asked. Low's Brooklyn Vote.

"Oh!" was the smiling reply, "I guess get about 75,000 votes in Brooklyn." Murphy retired to his private office. Senator Pat McCarren was at the

"Yes, and he will be elected, too," was the answer.
"Well, isn't McClellan as much a Tammany candidate as Grout and Fornes, and isn't there some inconsistency in your attitude?"
"There is no inconsistency." replied the chairman. "McClellan was nominated by a convention at which we were present. Grout and Fornes are a part of the conspiracy to Tammanyze Brooklyn. We will not stand for it."

"We turn, convinced, toward the future," added Mr. Strong, "convinced that a great victory will crown our efforts. There have been embarrassing delays and many conferences cussed by the Grout-Fornes controversy, but these conferences were not dissensions as our enemies in Tammany Hall tried to convey. We are pressing on as one host. The apathy which we found in our midst but two weeks ago, due to the unsettled condition of affairs, has now been dispelled. In nominating you the Citizens' Union has made no mistake."

Replying, Mr. Hinrichs praised the administration of Mayor Low and spoke of the duties of a public officer who, "like Ceazar's wife," he said. "must always be above suspicion."

The speech of Mr. McGuire in accepting the nomination was heartily applauded. He said:
